Introduction:

Your Skills Are Still in Demand!

If you've recently transitioned out of a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) role, you might be wondering: What's next for my career?

The answer? A future bigger than you ever imagined.

Your work in DEI was never just about policies and compliance — it was about people, strategy, and transformation. While some companies may be scaling back their DEI departments, the demand for your expertise in leadership, training, recruiting, and organizational change is still high—it just looks a little different.

This guide highlights 20 industries actively hiring former DEI pros — industries that value your ability to navigate workplace culture, develop inclusive policies, and drive meaningful change. Whether you're looking for a new career move, a lucrative side hustle, or an opportunity to start your own consulting business, the insights in this guide will help you turn your experience into your next big career opportunity.

In today's world, it's not just about finding the next job — it's about building a digital presence that attracts opportunities to YOU instead of you always having to chase THEM.

Whether you're transitioning into corporate leadership, entrepreneurship, or consulting, having the right digital and marketing skills will set you apart.

 No more waiting. No more uncertainty. It's time to move forward and level up your career! Let's explore where your expertise is needed most.

1. Healthcare & Hospital Systems

Why They're Hiring:

The healthcare industry is in desperate need of professionals who understand workplace equity, cultural competency, and inclusive hiring practices. From reducing disparities in patient care to improving workplace retention, your skills are vital to shaping a more inclusive healthcare system.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Director of Health Equity – Develop strategies to ensure diverse communities receive equitable patient care.
  - ✓ Diversity Talent Acquisition Specialist – Recruit and retain a workforce that reflects the patients they serve.
  - ✓ Workplace Culture Consultant – Train medical staff to provide culturally competent care and foster inclusive teams.
-  Side Hustle Tip: Offer 90-day health equity audits to hospitals looking to improve patient care through diversity initiatives.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn digital tools for healthcare training and online course creation.
- Develop a strong LinkedIn presence to connect with hiring managers.
- Master data visualization for research and reports on health equity.

2. Tech & AI Companies

Why They're Hiring:

Tech companies are under increasing scrutiny for biased AI algorithms, lack of workplace diversity, and inequitable hiring practices. Your DEI expertise can help shape ethical AI, improve workplace culture, and advocate for fair hiring policies.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Ethics & Inclusion Specialist in AI – Ensure AI technologies are developed without bias.
  - ✓ People Operations Manager – Design and implement diversity initiatives in tech hiring.
  - ✓ Diversity Recruitment Leader – Develop strategies to recruit underrepresented talent in the tech industry.
- 🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Offer DEI training sessions to tech startups and AI companies developing automation tools.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn data analysis and bias detection to assess AI systems.
- Master HR and recruiting software used in the tech industry.
- Build a consulting website showcasing your expertise in ethical AI.

3. Corporate Training & Learning & Development (L&D)

Why They're Hiring:

Even as companies restructure, employee training remains a top priority. Organizations need skilled professionals to train leaders, guide team development, and shape corporate learning programs. Many are now integrating DEI into leadership and workforce training— meaning your skills are still in demand.

Roles to Explore:

- ✅ L&D Specialist – Create and deliver leadership and diversity training.
  - ✅ Organizational Development Manager – Implement inclusive policies and workplace learning strategies.
  - ✅ Corporate Trainer – Lead workshops on unconscious bias, conflict resolution, and team culture.
- 🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Package your expertise into digital courses that companies can purchase for employee training.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Master e-learning platforms to create and sell training programs.
- Learn virtual event facilitation to deliver online training sessions.
- Develop a digital portfolio showcasing your expertise in corporate training.

4. Nonprofits & Philanthropy

Why They're Hiring:

Nonprofits are constantly looking for professionals who can help them engage diverse donors, create inclusive programs, and influence policy advocacy. If you're passionate about social justice, racial equity, or workforce inclusion, this field is an ideal fit.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Program Director for Equity & Inclusion – Lead initiatives focused on economic justice and community development.
- ✓ Fundraising & Outreach Coordinator – Engage donors and build relationships with diverse communities.
- ✓ DEI Policy Advisor – Ensure nonprofit programs meet the needs of underrepresented populations.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn grant writing skills to secure funding for DEI initiatives.
- Build a personal brand and website to showcase your nonprofit expertise.
- Master social media marketing to promote philanthropic campaigns.

5. Government & Public Policy

Why They're Hiring:

Unlike corporate America, government agencies remain committed to equity and inclusion. Many federal, state, and local offices are actively seeking DEI professionals to develop fair hiring policies, workforce diversity initiatives, and community outreach programs.

Roles to Explore:

✓ Diversity & Equity Program Manager – Oversee DEI initiatives within government agencies.

✓ Community Engagement Director – Strengthen public outreach efforts with underrepresented populations.

✓ Policy Analyst for Equity & Inclusion – Research and draft policies that reduce disparities in housing, employment, and education.

✂ Side Hustle Tip: Offer DEI policy consulting to city councils, school boards, and community organizations.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn policy research tools to analyze workforce and demographic trends.
- Build a professional website to showcase your public policy expertise.
- Develop presentation and data visualization skills for policy briefings.

6. Higher Education & Workforce Development

Why They're Hiring:

Colleges, universities, and workforce development organizations are still committed to equity, access, and inclusive learning environments. Your DEI expertise is invaluable in shaping diversity initiatives, faculty training, and career development programs for students from all backgrounds.

Roles to Explore:

- ✅ Director of Inclusive Learning & Equity – Develop and implement DEI strategies for students and faculty.
  - ✅ Career Development & Workforce Readiness Coach – Support job seekers from underrepresented communities.
  - ✅ Training & Faculty Development Specialist – Deliver DEI workshops and professional development programs.
- 🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Create online career coaching programs to help students and job seekers gain access to better opportunities.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn how to develop and sell online career training programs.
- Build an authority-driven LinkedIn profile to attract colleges and workforce organizations.
- Master virtual event technology to host online career fairs and workshops.

7. Financial Services & Banking

Why They're Hiring:

Banks and financial institutions recognize the importance of inclusive financial literacy programs, equitable lending practices, and diverse leadership representation. Your ability to advocate for fairness in financial services is a powerful asset.

Roles to Explore:

✓ Financial Inclusion Officer – Work on policies that ensure equitable banking access.

✓ Diversity in Leadership Consultant – Coach firms on developing diverse executive teams.

✓ Workforce Development & Training Lead – Implement programs that train diverse talent in financial services.

✂ Side Hustle Tip: Offer DEI workshops for small business lenders to help them better serve diverse entrepreneurs.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn data visualization tools to showcase financial inclusion trends.
- Develop a digital personal brand as an inclusive finance advocate.
- Master email marketing and outreach to land speaking gigs at financial firms.

8. Advertising, Media, & Public Relations

Why They're Hiring:

Media companies are being held accountable for representation, bias, and ethical storytelling. Your DEI expertise can help shape messaging, improve hiring practices, and ensure inclusive brand communication.

Roles to Explore:

✅ Diversity Marketing Strategist – Help brands create more inclusive campaigns.

✅ Inclusive Content Consultant – Advise on diverse and culturally aware storytelling.

✅ Talent Recruitment & Retention Specialist – Ensure fair hiring and promotion practices in media.

🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Offer brand inclusivity audits for companies looking to align with DEI best practices.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn AI-powered content creation to streamline marketing efforts.
- Develop skills in website design and SEO to promote DEI consulting services.
- Master social media engagement strategies to build authority in DEI marketing.

9. Supply Chain & Procurement

Why They're Hiring:

Companies are under pressure to diversify their supply chains and work with more minority-owned businesses. If you have experience in procurement, vendor relations, or economic inclusion, there's a strong market for your skills.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Supplier Diversity Manager – Oversee procurement strategies that prioritize minority-owned vendors.
  - ✓ Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Advisor – Ensure that supply chains reflect ethical and equitable business practices.
  - ✓ Procurement Consultant – Advise businesses on DEI-friendly purchasing strategies.
-  Side Hustle Tip: Launch a DEI-focused vendor matchmaking service to connect corporations with diverse suppliers.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn CRM and business management tools for supplier matchmaking.
- Build a professional consulting website to attract corporate clients.
- Master business process automation to streamline procurement consulting.

10. Legal & Compliance

Why They're Hiring:

Companies facing lawsuits related to workplace discrimination, bias, and compliance issues are actively seeking DEI experts. Your ability to train HR teams and ensure fair policies makes you an asset in this field.

Roles to Explore:

✅ DEI Compliance Officer – Ensure organizations meet labor and discrimination laws.

✅ Equity & Inclusion Policy Consultant – Develop fair workplace policies.

✅ HR & Bias Training Facilitator – Lead workshops on mitigating workplace bias.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn data analytics to track health equity progress.
- Master presentation tools to deliver impactful DEI workshops.
- Build a consulting website to showcase your expertise in health equity.

12. Environmental & Sustainability Organizations

Why They're Hiring:

Climate change affects communities unequally, and organizations are focusing on environmental justice, sustainable business practices, and equitable access to green jobs. Your DEI experience is crucial in ensuring diverse communities are part of sustainability efforts.

Roles to Explore:

✅ Environmental Justice Coordinator – Ensure marginalized communities have a voice in climate action.

✅ Sustainability & Inclusion Consultant – Advise corporations on green initiatives that include all communities.

✅ Diversity Hiring Manager for Green Jobs – Recruit talent for the growing clean energy workforce.

🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Create an eco-focused career coaching service to help underrepresented professionals enter sustainability fields.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn SEO and content marketing to drive awareness for your sustainability consulting.
- Develop data visualization skills to showcase environmental impact reports.
- Master grant writing basics to secure funding for community projects.

13. Tech & Artificial Intelligence

Why They're Hiring:

Technology is reshaping the world, but bias in AI and lack of diversity in tech companies remain huge challenges. Organizations need experts who can develop fair hiring practices, audit AI for bias, and ensure equitable access to tech careers.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ AI Ethics & Bias Consultant – Help companies remove bias from algorithms.
  - ✓ Diversity & Inclusion Manager for Tech Firms – Improve representation in STEM fields.
  - ✓ Tech Workforce Development Coach – Train diverse professionals for tech jobs.
-  Side Hustle Tip: Launch an online course teaching inclusive tech hiring practices.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn AI-powered tools to streamline your consulting practice.
- Develop LinkedIn marketing strategies to attract tech clients.
- Master remote training technology to conduct virtual workshops.

14. Government & Policy Advocacy

Why They're Hiring:

Federal, state, and local governments need professionals to develop inclusive policies, improve hiring equity, and create fair legislation. If you have a passion for public service and social change, this sector is for you.

Roles to Explore:

✓ Diversity & Inclusion Policy Advisor – Shape DEI policies for government agencies.

✓ Community Outreach & Engagement Coordinator – Strengthen relationships between government and diverse communities.

✓ HR & Compliance Specialist – Ensure fair hiring and anti-discrimination policies are enforced.

✂ Side Hustle Tip: Offer diversity consulting services to government contractors.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn professional branding strategies to position yourself as a government consultant.
- Develop email marketing skills to engage potential clients.
- Master public speaking for panel discussions and training sessions.

15. Arts, Culture & Entertainment

Why They're Hiring:

The entertainment industry is under pressure to increase diversity in film, television, theater, and publishing. Studios, networks, and arts organizations are looking for consultants who can ensure authentic representation.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ DEI in Media Consultant – Ensure fair representation in storytelling.
  - ✓ Inclusive Talent Development Manager – Recruit and support diverse creatives.
  - ✓ Cultural Sensitivity Advisor – Help studios navigate potential controversies.
-  Side Hustle Tip: Create a consulting agency that evaluates media projects for cultural accuracy.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn content marketing to position yourself as an industry expert.
- Develop AI-driven copywriting skills to scale your messaging.
- Master digital course creation to sell your expertise as a training program.

16. Retail & E-Commerce

Why They're Hiring:

Consumers are demanding diverse and inclusive branding. Retailers need professionals to develop inclusive marketing campaigns, ensure fair labor practices, and diversify supply chains.

Roles to Explore:

- ✅ Inclusive Brand Strategist – Help retailers appeal to diverse audiences.
- ✅ Diversity in Product Development Consultant – Ensure brands reflect cultural awareness.
- ✅ Supplier Diversity Manager – Increase representation in retail partnerships.
- 🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Launch an online store featuring products from diverse entrepreneurs.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn e-commerce website development to launch your own store.
- Develop social media selling skills to increase visibility.
- Master AI-powered marketing automation to streamline promotions.

17. Transportation & Logistics

Why They're Hiring:

From rideshare companies to freight shipping, DEI is crucial for fair hiring, customer accessibility, and supplier inclusion. Your skills can improve recruitment, workplace culture, and community engagement in this industry.

Roles to Explore:

✅ Workforce Diversity Manager – Increase representation in transportation careers.

✅ Supplier Inclusion Specialist – Expand opportunities for minority-owned logistics firms.

✅ Community Engagement Coordinator – Strengthen public trust in transportation services.

 Side Hustle Tip: Offer DEI training programs for transportation companies.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn project management software to handle logistics efficiently.
- Develop email marketing campaigns to attract clients.
- Master virtual workshop hosting to deliver online training sessions.

18. Corporate Training & Coaching

Why They're Hiring:

Companies need trainers who can upskill employees, improve leadership diversity, and foster inclusion. If you enjoy teaching and mentoring, this is a natural transition.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Corporate DEI Trainer – Deliver training programs for employees.
- ✓ Leadership Development Coach – Help diverse talent prepare for promotions.
- ✓ HR Consultant – Assist companies in improving workplace culture.
- 🔧 Side Hustle Tip: Sell on-demand DEI training courses to corporations.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn AI-powered course creation to build scalable training programs.
- Develop personal branding techniques to attract corporate clients.
- Master email and social media marketing to drive engagement.

19. Financial Services & Fintech

Why They're Hiring:

The finance industry is under pressure to address wealth disparities, create inclusive banking products, and improve financial literacy in underserved communities. Fintech companies, banks, and investment firms need experts who understand both equity and economics to help shape financial policies, marketing strategies, and hiring practices.

Roles to Explore:

✓ Inclusive Finance Consultant – Help financial institutions develop products for diverse communities.

✓ Wealth & Financial Literacy Educator – Teach financial planning to underserved groups.

✓ Diversity & Inclusion Compliance Officer – Ensure financial services meet fair lending regulations.

 Side Hustle Tip: Launch a financial coaching business to help professionals and entrepreneurs build wealth.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn website design to build a financial coaching brand.
- Develop email automation to nurture leads and attract clients.
- Master social media marketing to grow an audience for your financial services.

20. Education & EdTech

Why They're Hiring:

The education sector—from K-12 schools to corporate training and e-learning platforms—is investing in DEI to ensure equitable learning opportunities for students and employees alike. Schools, universities, and tech-driven education platforms need trainers, curriculum developers, and policy advisors who can make learning more inclusive.

Roles to Explore:

- ✓ Diversity in Curriculum Specialist – Ensure diverse representation in learning materials.
  - ✓ E-Learning DEI Consultant – Work with online course providers to create inclusive education.
  - ✓ Adult Education & Workforce Development Coach – Train professionals for career transitions.
-  Side Hustle Tip: Develop an e-learning course teaching inclusive hiring, leadership, or workforce development strategies.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn online course creation tools like Teachable and Thinkific.
- Develop video production skills for engaging e-learning content.
- Master content marketing to attract students to your training programs.

⚡ Bonus Paths: Quick Wins & Entrepreneurship

🎯 21. Side Hustles for Quick Income (Under 90 Days!)

If you need to generate income quickly while you figure out your next long-term move, side hustles are a powerful solution. These short-term projects can help you build credibility, expand your network, and position yourself for bigger opportunities—all while keeping money coming in.

The key to a great side hustle is to monetize what you already know. As a former DEI professional, you have valuable skills that companies and individuals are still willing to pay for—even if they aren't hiring full-time DEI roles.

✅ Freelance DEI Workshop Facilitation – Many organizations still need training on inclusive hiring, unconscious bias, and workplace culture, but they're outsourcing instead of employing full-time staff. Offer one-off workshops to companies, universities, or industry conferences.

✅ Resume & LinkedIn Optimization for Job Seekers – Use your HR and recruiting expertise to help job seekers craft compelling resumes and LinkedIn profiles. With layoffs increasing across industries, people need professional help standing out. Charge a flat fee per client and scale your business through referrals.

✅ Contract Recruiting for Inclusive Hiring – Some businesses still prioritize diverse hiring but now contract recruiters instead of hiring full-time talent acquisition teams. Offer short-term recruiting services, helping companies find qualified diverse candidates on a project basis.

The best part? These side hustles can turn into full-time income streams if you choose. If you prove your value, companies may extend long-term contracts, refer you to others, or even hire you outright.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- Learn marketing and pricing strategies for selling your services.
- Master automation tools to streamline client outreach and scheduling.
- Get a custom-built website to showcase your side hustle and attract leads.

22. Private Consulting: Build Your Own DEI Business

If you're ready to fully control your career and earning potential, private consulting is your best next move. Companies still need DEI expertise, but rather than hiring full-time staff, they're shifting towards outsourcing, project-based consulting, and fractional leadership roles. This shift is a golden opportunity for former DEI professionals to position themselves as go-to experts.

Here's how to get started quickly and land your first clients:

1 Brand Yourself as a DEI Consultant – Companies are more likely to hire a business than an individual. Even if you're a one-person operation, presenting yourself as a professional consultancy gives you credibility. A website, a polished LinkedIn profile, and a strong portfolio are non-negotiable.

2 Identify Your Niche – Instead of offering generic DEI services, focus on high-demand, high-paying areas like leadership training, employee retention strategies, inclusive hiring, or workplace investigations. Position yourself as the expert in one or two of these areas.

3 Use Your Network – Your former colleagues, industry contacts, and past employers already trust you. Let them know you're available for consulting.

Many companies prefer to hire someone they already know over searching for new talent.

Bonus Tip: Offer a free or low-cost workshop to showcase your skills and get your foot in the door. Once companies see your impact, they'll be more likely to hire you for ongoing work.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- ✓ Get a free 4-page custom website to establish your business credibility.
- ✓ Learn automation tools for lead generation and client outreach.
- ✓ Master invoicing, contracts, and pricing strategies to set competitive rates.

The demand for DEI expertise isn't disappearing — it's just shifting. The question is: will you shift with it? Let's get you set up for success! **

23. The Hidden Job Market for Former DEI Professionals

Most jobs that are worth having are never publicly advertised—and this is especially true in fields that are undergoing rapid transformation, like DEI. If you're relying solely on job boards, you're competing with hundreds or even thousands of applicants, making it difficult to stand out. The real opportunities exist in the hidden job market—a space where hiring decisions are made before a position is ever posted.

So, how do you access this hidden job market? Through relationships, strategic networking, and insider connections. Many organizations are still hiring for DEI-related work but have stopped labeling these roles as “DEI positions.” Instead, the responsibilities are being absorbed into HR, leadership development, compliance, talent acquisition, and corporate social responsibility. The key is to position yourself as a problem solver rather than a job seeker—someone who can help companies retain talent, prevent legal risks, and create stronger, more innovative teams.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

- ✓ We'll show you how to identify these unlisted opportunities,
- ✓ how to connect with decision-makers, and
- ✓ how to have conversations that lead to offers — whether as a full-time hire, a consultant, or a project-based contractor.

The best jobs are not on Indeed, and we'll show you how to find them.

24. Rebranding Yourself:

Why Teams & Companies Win Over Individuals

If you're still thinking of yourself as a solo job seeker, you're already at a disadvantage. The modern job market rewards companies, teams, and brands — not just individuals. When companies cut DEI roles, many of them didn't eliminate the need for diversity work; they just shifted it to outside consultants, outsourced specialists, or internal teams. The takeaway? It's time to start thinking like a business.

This doesn't mean you need to build a massive firm overnight. But presenting yourself as a service provider under a company name (even if it's just you, or you and a few trusted colleagues) makes hiring you easier, commanding higher pay more feasible, and landing bigger projects more realistic. Whether you're applying for a traditional job or looking for consulting contracts, businesses trust other businesses more than they trust individuals.

How the Grown Folks' Computer Club Can Help:

 We'll show you how to brand yourself as a business, how to form small but powerful teams, and how to secure work under a company identity — whether that means registering an LLC, forming a consultancy, or operating as a group of independent experts under one banner. Your competition is thinking like a business: it's time you did, too.

Closing Thoughts: Your Future is Bright

Your skills in equity, inclusion, and cultural transformation are more valuable than ever. Companies may be restructuring, but DEI isn't disappearing — it's evolving.

Whether you choose to transition into another full-time role, launch a consulting practice, or develop multiple income streams, there are more opportunities than obstacles ahead.

By leveraging your skills, showcasing your personal branding, using AI-driven business strategies, and making use of a few digital tools, you can build a career that's both profitable and impactful.
